

KRCL Issues and Programs List 3rd Quarter 2025

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
civil rights, race, culture	RadioACTive	7/1/25	60 minutes	Rishan Leak, Dr. Tamara Stevenson and Lara Jones celebrate and share their winning conversation, Utah Leaders Mark the 60th Anniversary of Landmark Civil Rights Act, recently recognized by the Utah SPJ at its annual awards banquet.
literature, arts & culture	RadioACTive	7/2/25	60 minutes	Nick Burns in conversation with Will Potter, author of Little Red Barns: Hiding the Truth, from Farm to Fable. Utah Fire Marshal Ted Black on fireworks and fire danger this weekend (it's dry out there, Utah!), and Rocky Mountain Community Radio's Regional Roundup.
arts & Culture, politics	RadioACTive	7/3/25	60 minutes	Recorded in May, RadioACTive shares clips from 'The Soundtrack of Community Building,' featuring Theresa Martinez, Professor of Rock 'n Roll at the U, and musicians Talia Keys, Marv Hamilton and Sammy Brue. Plus, voices of military veterans and more at the No Kings rally in Heber City, and a special July 4th edition of Take a Hike with Ashley Brown.
arts & culture	RadioACTive	7/4/25	60 minutes	Tonight on the show we celebrate the last six months of live music of Radioactive with a retrospective show. We hear from the audio engineering team and the Radioactive team on some of their favorite artists to come through KRCL's doors.
race & culture, politics, art	RadioACTive	7/7/25	60 minutes	RadioACTive Pop with Olivia Jaramillo talks pop culture, politics and DEI's last stand with Will Terry of the Salt Lake Human Rights Commission. Calling it a 'betrayal of trust,' Utahns Against Hunger's Gina Cornia has a few words to say about the passage of the OBBBA. And the poets and artists of When Waves Return.
politics, arts & culture, animals	RadioACTive	7/8/25	60 minutes	Planned Parenthood of Utah's Shireen Ghorbani Meet Your Maker returns! Craft Lake City Founder Angela H. Brown is back with artists, including STEM folks, for our annual series previewing the 17th annual DIY Festival. Tamrika Khvtisiashvili, RadioACTive host emerita, on what Latvians think of American politics. BREAKING: Best Friends to emergency airlift 125 dogs and cats out of Texas.
nuclear, environment, arts & culture	RadioACTive	7/9/25	60 minutes	Utahns on the impact of OBBBA, including Downwind survivor and advocate Mary Dickson, environmental lawyer and advocate Steve Bloch, and Jack Stauss, who's one week into his new post leading Save Our Canyons. BONUS: Ma Black celebrates first NOVA FM anniversary tonight!

KRCL Issues and Programs List 3rd Quarter 2025

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
outdoors, literature, film	RadioACTIVE	7/10/25	60 minutes	Kids First: Growing Up, Getting Outside, Working Differently. It's all about our kids with Valene MC. Dr. Sheryl Ziegler, shares her new book, The Crucial Years examining the impacts on the overlooked years of middle childhood. Every Kid Outdoors is back to get your kiddos outside for a trail adventure. Then Hannah Currie, shares about her short documentary film, Working Differently addressing neurodivergence in the workplace. Take a Hike with Ashley Brown.
agriculture, astronomy, arts & culture	RadioACTIVE	7/11/25	60 minutes	AI's Urban Farm Report with Dendric Estate, a new cidery ready to deliver The First Sip. Plus, Skywatcher Leo T, the newest Dark Sky City in Utah, and homegrown music from Mel Soul.
politics, arts & culture, sports	RadioACTIVE	7/14/25	60 minutes	RadioACTIVE Pop talks pop culture and politics with Gabi and Jackie of Elevate - The New Utah Way. Plus, American Ninja Warriors, Survivors at the Summit, Paint Your Heart Out, and Spy Hop Audio Apprenticeship with the debut of a new RadioACTIVE theme song.
civil rights, race, culture, arts, opioids	RadioACTIVE	7/15/25	60 minutes	On July 17, there will be 1,500 rallies, including 8 in Utah, to honor the anniversary of the passing of civil rights hero John Lewis - not with ceremonies, but with action. Salt Lake Indivisible shares details about Good Trouble Lives On. Plus, USARA on Utah's share of a $720M settlement with opioid drug makers, Gaza Soup Kitchen's Hani Almadhoun, and Round #2 of Meet Your Maker with DIY Fest by Craft Lake City.
environment, arts & culture, renewable energy	RadioACTIVE	7/16/25	60 minutes	HEAL Utah is teaming up with other green groups this week to support the Utah Renewable Communities Initiative. HEAL Utah stops by to discuss the program, which aims to help Utah communities achieve 100% net renewable electricity by 2030. Plus, Pints and Postcards and Trinity @ 80.
radio, pasifika stories, food, culture, arts, outdoors	RadioACTIVE	7/17/25	60 minutes	Check in with NFCB's Serah Mead on Rescission. Then Creative Pacific's Pasifika Fashion Week marches on in honor of co-founder Afa Ah Loo, celebrating culture, creativity, and his lasting legacy. Plus, new films, good food, and fresh air with the Orem Film Fest, the Our Sundays Cookout, and your next trail pick with Ashley Brown's Take a Hike.
arts & culture, agriculture, astronomy, literature	RadioACTIVE	7/18/25	60 minutes	Punk Rock Farmer Friday serves up more true tales of the agrihood, featuring Darren Parry and students from his Indigenous Stewardship class who are planting 'Nuwuh Booheep' - Shoshone for 'Indigenous plants' - in Cache Valley. Plus, Utah Agricultural Commissioner Kelly Pehrson, The Ogdenite, & 1974 Bookstore SLC Skywatcher Leo T, and homegrown music from the 2025 PTA Battle of the Bands Winner, singer-songwriter Jonah Blaney.

KRCL Issues and Programs List 3rd Quarter 2025

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
poetry, LGBTQ, food insecurity	RadioACTIVE	7/21/25	60 minutes	RadioACTIVE Pop talks poetry with Em Capito of Madrona, which is about to present its inaugural Wildkind Visionary award. Plus, Rallies & Resources Spotlight with Volun queer's Jacob Buck and Jeanette Padilla-Vega of Food Justice Coalition — two good troublemakers you should know.
nursing, healthcare, arts & culture	RadioACTIVE	7/22/25	60 minutes	New data says Utah has the worst nursing shortage in the country, with only 1344 nurses per 100,000 Utahns. Find out more with Teresa Garrett of the University of Utah College of Nursing. Plus, Craft Lake City is back for Round #3 of Meet Your Maker, highlighting artisans and vendors at the 17th annual DIY Fest.
Utah history, politics, arts & culture, local music	RadioACTIVE	7/23/25	60 minutes	In their new podcast, The Bingham Boys, City Weekly Founder John Saltas and criminal defense attorney Ron Yengich "tell stories from our beloved roots home of Bingham Canyon, Utah, spit-shine our Democratic blue-collar bona fides and let the chips fall where they may." Plus, Planned Parenthood of Utah update, a preview of Plan-B Theatre's JUAN JOSE AND THE DEATHLY VATOS, and homegrown music from Giants in the Oak Tree.
Utah history, environment, civic engagement,	RadioACTIVE	7/25/25	60 minutes	Happy Pie & Beer or Pioneer Day! However you mark the 24th, we're honoring the original stewards of this land with a Take a Hike special. Then it's off to the Pints and Postcards crew for a pint, some perspective, and a song for staying grounded when the world feels upside down. Due to technical difficulties on Thursday, July 24, this show is airing on Friday, July 25.
SLC History, arts and culture	RadioACTIVE	7/28/25	60 minutes	Celebrating All Things SLC with City Cast Salt Lake. RadioACTIVE Pop! on all things 801 Day with City Cast Salt Lake, including Emily Means, Ivana Martinez and Terina Ria. Plus, Ballet Folklorico, La Guelaguetza, and Mariachi Festival.
Banking, arts and culture	RadioACTIVE	7/29/25	60 minutes	Redemption Bank Victory Lap. Redemption Bank now has the keys to Holladay Bank and Trust - what's next for the first Black-owned bank in the Rockies. Plus, Black Wealth Conference, Pacific Island Heritage Month, and Round #4 of Meet Your Maker with DIY Fest artisans and exhibitors.
Social services and funding, redistricting, civic engagement, arts and culture	RadioACTIVE	7/30/25	60 minutes	YWCA Pivots to Fill Budget Hole Created by OBBBA. Federal budget cuts have placed critical services at risk at the YWCA Utah. Chief Executive Officer Liz Owens shares the plan to replace those funds. Better Boundaries' new executive director, Elizabeth Rasmussen, on redistricting lawsuit. Plus, Utah March to rally at ICE in WVC, FOX 13's Ben Winslow on GSL, and the 6th Annual Indian Food Fair.

KRCL Issues and Programs List 3rd Quarter 2025

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
public lands policy	RadioACTIVE	7/31/25	60 minutes	Public Lands, Public Voices Call-In Special. Public lands are under pressure from proposed sell-offs to rollbacks on environmental protections. What's at stake, and how are communities fighting back? Join us for Public Lands, Public Voices, a regional call-in show from Rocky Mountain Community Radio.
Agrihood, Environment, Arts & Culture, Local Music, Astronomy, Civic Engagement	RadioACTIVE	8/1/25	60 minutes	It's Punk Rock Farmer Friday and 801 Day! Fresh, homegrown music from Hectic Hobo, Al's Urban Farm Report with Christy Bills, aka The Bug Lady, of the Natural History Museum of Utah. Plus, Rallies and Resources with Skywatcher Leo T, Gracie's Farm, Keith from Friday Night Fall Out, and LTCOL's Dave John.
DEI, Culture, Education, Public Lands, Local Publications	RadioACTIVE	8/4/25	60 minutes	Best of the Beehive meets RadioACTIVE Pop. RadioACTIVE Pop! brings you SL Mag's Best of the Beehive 2025 with Editor Jeremy Pugh. Rallies and Resources shines a light on the Fernandes Scholarship Fund, a new scholarship that is free to be DEI. From intern to executive director, Dominique Byrd now leads Comunidades Unidas. Plus, The Land We Share, Utah's Public Lands Summit.
Festivals, arts + culture, Food, crafts	RadioACTIVE	8/5/25	60 minutes	Homegrown festivals are plentiful in Utah, especially in August. RadioACTIVE's Roundtable Tuesday digs into the way each celebrates and builds community in their own special way. Join us for the organizers of DIY Fest, GrillFest, GridFest, and City Weekly's Beer Fest. Plus, Out of the Blue, aka the 9th and 9th Whale, is ready for a glow-up.
Public Health, Access, Women Safety, Downwinders, Atomic Energy/energy	RadioACTIVE	8/6/25	60 minutes	Utah leads the nation in suspected non-fatal overdose visits to the ER because someone had and knew how to use Naloxone, which can reverse the effect of an opioid overdose. That's harm reduction in action. RadioACTIVE talks with Salt Lake Harm Reduction Project MacKenzie Bray. Plus, Rape Recovery Center, 80th anniversary of Hiroshima, and Voces En Bloom 2025.
Local Hiking, BIPOC, Education, Mental Health, Mentoring Musicians	RadioACTIVE	8/7/25	60 minutes	Summer's winding down, but there's still time to soak up the sun and set intentions for the school year ahead. This week on Take A Hike, we explore the joy of Camping in Color, uplift youth through the Summit Rising Program's musician mentorship, and get real with Teacher Bob about how families can prep mind, heart, and calendar for back to school.
Agrihood, Environment, Arts & Culture, Local Music, Astronomy, Civic Engagement, Youth	RadioACTIVE	8/8/25	60 minutes	Punk Rock Farmer Friday, featuring homegrown music from Miss Margaret, Al's Urban Farm Report with Market Gardener JM Fortier, WCG's Tomato Sandwich Party and Nicole of AgPro Workwear. Plus, NHMU BugFest's BugBar Chef, Skywatcher Leo T, Spy Hop and The Apollo.

KRCL Issues and Programs List 3rd Quarter 2025

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
Education, Back to School, Arts + Culture	RadioACTIVE	8/11/25	60 minutes	Teachers John Arthur and Elyse Arrington share their views on education, parents, and culture wars. Plus, Paint Your Heart Out and Westside Culture Fest are back.
Senior Citizens, Environment, Great Salt Lake, Dignity, Finance	RadioACTIVE	8/12/25	60 minutes	National Senior Citizens Day is this month. Roundtable Tuesday collaborates with James Brown of Living and Aging with Pride, which addresses the inevitability of aging and highlights the financial burdens that impact quality of life for seniors. Utah Rivers Council says Utah's water rates are draining Great Salt Lake. And Nature @ Night with Tracy Aviary at Pia Okwai.
Women Reproductive Rights, Access to Care, Genocide in Gaza, local events	RadioACTIVE	8/13/25	60 minutes	With federal cuts and lawsuits, Shireen Ghorbani has her work cut out for her as she takes over leadership at Utah's reproductive health nonprofit. YWCA Utah Leader Luncheon spotlight. And SJ Quinney College of Law's Amos Guiora is back from Israel with a few things to say about Palestinians and Israeli hostages.
Immunizations, Public Health, Hiking, Community Support, Local Businesses/ employees	RadioACTIVE	8/14/25	60 minutes	Nicholas Rupp of SL county Health Department stops by for National Immunization Awareness Month. Take a Hike with Ashley Brown shares about the pain points that keep folks from getting outside and hiking in Utah. Downtown alliance discusses the recent building fires impacting local restaurants on Main street and how the community is calling for support.
Agrihood, Environment, Arts & Culture, Local Music, Astronomy, Civic Engagement	RadioACTIVE	8/15/25	60 minutes	Immunizations, public health, Hiking, Community Support, Local Businesses/ employees
Arts + Culture, LGBTQ+, Theatre, Live + Local Music	RadioACTIVE	8/18/25	60 minutes	RadioACTIVE Pop! talks Queer and Trans Pasifika heritage with Nuanua Collective. Pioneer Theatre Co. readies for new season, expands Curtain Call for All. Nonprofit IncludEd United needs your help to fulfill educators' wishlists. Plus, Mariachi Fuego LIVE (and LIVE-STREAMED) in the Big Room!
Legal/policy, Local Events, School Lunch supply	RadioACTIVE	8/19/25	60 minutes	Roundtable Tuesday talks with Death Penalty Action, which wants the Beehive State to set an example and grant mercy. Plus, Fascist Fighter Fun Run, Adult Field Day, Wake the Great Salt Lake, and (can't-stop-won't-stop) MrsCactusVibes. This teacher is still dancing to pay off school lunch deficits as another school year starts.

KRCL Issues and Programs List 3rd Quarter 2025

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
Military Industrial Complex, Church Investments, Environment, Great Salt Lake, Local events	RadioACTIVE	8/20/25	60 minutes	Inkstick Media's Taylor Barnes is back with another report on 'sin-vestments' of the LDS Church, as well as workers, waste and warnings from bomb country. Utah Rivers Council reports on today's interim legislative session, where lawmakers talked about the fate of the Great Salt Lake. Plus, Keep Parks Public meets Protect Every Park and YWCA Leader of Tomorrow 2025.
Uranium, Indigenous, Hiking, Public service, community building	RadioACTIVE	8/21/25	60 minutes	RadioACTIVE's Valene MC sits down with HEAL Utah to discuss local tribal nations' opposition to the White Mesa Uranium Mill Operations. Take a Hike correspondent Ashley Brown, author of Urban Trails SLC, shares her hike of the week and checks in with Salt Lake County Search and Rescue. Then we debut "Is This Normal??" a semi-regular check-in on the times. This week: Kilo Zamora, who creates learning environments for groups to develop themselves and transform their communities.
Agrihood, Environment, Arts & Culture, Local Music, Astronomy, Civic Engagement, State Fair	RadioACTIVE	8/22/25	60 minutes	Friday, Aug. 22: Punk Rock Farmer Friday with homegrown music from Michael Louis Austin and Band. More true tales of the agrihood with the Utah State Fair and Wilde Valley Farms. Plus, a Main Street Fire Rooftop Social, and Skywatcher Leo T!
Call-in show, National Parks, BIPOC, Science, Volunteers	RadioACTIVE	8/25/25	60 minutes	Today marks the 109th anniversary of the National Park Service. But drastic budget cuts to the park system leave many people concerned
Celebrity, Politics, Pets, Gerrymandering, plant-based Medicine, Utah non-profits	RadioACTIVE	8/26/25	60 minutes	RadioACTIVE checks in with Better Boundaries about yesterday's ruling in favor of plaintiffs, against UT lawmakers. Operation Pawpulation, along with a fur baby, is back to celebrate National Dog Day. Utah Nonprofits Association's Jill Bennett on the state of Utah's 10,000+ charitable organizations, given federal cuts and, in turn, a greater demand for their services. Friend's Clubhouse needs your help. Plus, plant-based medicine advocate Christine Stenquist returns. Oh, and a Ninja Warrior Champ from St. George.
Harm Reduction, Public Health, Public Lands, Leadership	RadioACTIVE	8/27/25	60 minutes	RadioACTIVE talks with Salt Lake Harm Reduction Project about losing federal support as we approach International Overdose Awareness Day. Plus, The Land We Share, Utah's Public Lands Summit, YWCA 36th Annual LeaderLuncheon, and immigration news in Zion.
Education, Dyslexia, Hiking, Jordan River, Film, Arts + Culture	RadioACTIVE	8/28/25	60 minutes	Back-to-school also means learning differences come into focus. We'll talk with filmmaker Jenny Mackenzie about her documentary Right to Read and check in with Decoding Dyslexia Utah. Ashley Brown is back with Take a Hike and the Get to the River Festival. Plus, Haymaker Film Festival director Joshua McGillis stops by with the 2025 lineup.

KRCL Issues and Programs List 3rd Quarter 2025

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
Agrihood, Environment, Arts & Culture, Local Music, Astronomy, Civic Engagement, Local Rallies	RadioACTIVE	8/29/25	60 minutes	More true tales of the agrihood with Aldine, KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer, bringing you homegrown food news and homegrown music. Tune in for Rose Park Crop Swap, Green River Melon Days, Toxic Shock Records Book Tour, Workers Over Billionaires Rally, and Skywatcher Leo T!
Arts and culture, SLC Music	RadioACTIVE	9/1/25	60 minutes	Tonight on the show we celebrate the last six months of live music of Radioactive with a retrospective show. We hear from the audio engineering team and the Radioactive team on some of their favorite artists to come through KRCL's doors.
Plants, medicine, education	RadioACTIVE	9/2/25	60 minutes	Christine Stenquist of Rooted: Stories of Plant Medicine, People, and Progress, introduces us to Blake Smith of Zion Medicinal. Teachers are in the first month of school and still need help with classroom supplies. IncludEd United reports back on wishlists.
Public lands policy, civic engagement, environment, water, homelessness	RadioACTIVE	9/3/25	60 minutes	Hollins, Escamilla on the State's Choice of SLC's West Side for New Homeless Campus. Plus, Get to the River Festival 2025, Salty Jams for GSL, Take a Hike, and one final preview of the 36th Annual YWCA LeaderLuncheon.
Education, Utah history, independent media, online sports gambling	RadioACTIVE	9/4/25	60 minutes	Voices Amplified with Rising Journalists from the University of Utah. Tune in to hear from The Daily Utah Chronicle's Can of Worms podcast host about Great Saltair. Editors at Prodigal Press on the need for an underground media collective in Utah Valley. An insider's look at online sports gambling in Utah. Stay until the end to hear what has been bringing these students to their 'happy place.'
Arts and culture, environment, agriculture, astronomy	RadioACTIVE	9/5/25	60 minutes	Muskies Live+Livestreamed on Punk Rock Farmer Friday. More true tales of the agrihood with Aldine, KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer. You can always count on homegrown food and homegrown music. Tonight, Muskies, a 'pike psych' band from Ogden. Plus, Native Seed Swap and Plant Fest, SL Mag's annual farm-to-glass cocktail contest, Slow Food Utah's 'Snail of Approval' and Skywatcher Leo T!
Arts and culture, business, jobs	RadioACTIVE	9/8/25	60 minutes	Voces en Bloom Artists + Music. RadioACTIVE Pop previews Voces en Bloom, which celebrates the rich musical talents and cultural heritage of our Spanish-speaking community with performances by national and local Latino musicians. Get a preview of the 2025 Utah LGBTQ+ Summit, Expo and Job Fair. Plus, GM Gavin Dahl on KRCL's finances after losing CPB funding.

KRCL Issues and Programs List 3rd Quarter 2025

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
Arts and culture, plant medicine, children,	RadioACTIVE	9/9/25	60 minutes	Wake the Lake Mural Party + 40 Years of Voices + Cannabis Research in Zion. Voices for Utah Children is getting ready to celebrate 40 years and 40 champions. RadioACTIVE and Voices highlight changemakers who have made a lasting difference for Utah's kids. SLC Arts Council is ready to unveil a Wake the Lake mural by Trevor Dahl in Rose Park. Rooted: Stories of Plant Medicine, People, and Progress, with Christine Stenquist and Valerie Ahanonu, Center for Medical Cannabis Research.
Teen saint, water conservation, environment, health, arts and culture	RadioACTIVE	9/10/25	60 minutes	First-Ever Teen Saint, aka 'God's Influencer,' Inspires Utah Catholic Youth. Utah Catholic Youth ready to celebrate the first teen saint. RadioACTIVE follows up with Father Gustavo Vidal and youth leader Mike Edwards. Utah author, trial attorney and environmental activist Danny Quintana on his new book, This Will Work. RadioACTIVE's Take a Hike Gets to the River. Plus, Rallies and Resources with Salt Lake AIDS Walk, Intermountain Hoop Dance Competition, Salt Lake Speaks: Feelings of Fall, and Drive Electric Month.
Gun laws, homeless services, arts and culture	RadioACTIVE	9/11/25	60 minutes	U Students Talk Open-Carry on Campus in Wake of Kirk Assassination at UVU. RadioACTIVE passes the mic to Voices Amplified, a new generation of journalists from the University of Utah. Tonight: Students discuss their perspective and reporting process concerning open-carry on campus, where security is being increased in the wake of yesterday's assassination of Charlie Kirk at UVU. The Other Side Donuts taste-test and check-in. Plus, homegrown music from The Hit.
Arts and culture, agriculture, urban planning, astronomy	RadioACTIVE	9/12/25	60 minutes	Punk Rock Farmer on the Road @ Mestizo Coffee House for Radiothon-Eve. Una taza mas as we celebrate the community gathering spot that Mestizo has been for over 17 years. It will be closing at the end of the month, so we need to discuss the future of the West Side, which may hinge on the ambitious Rio Grande Plan. More true tales of the agrihood with Aldine, KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer, and Sunwork Honey and Garden Giveaway. Plus, Skywatcher Leo T and homegrown music from CHAC XOL. See you there!
Free speech, arts and culture, redistricting	RadioACTIVE	9/22/25	60 minutes	RadioACTIVE Pop, Pop Culture + Free Speech. RadioACTIVE Pop! with Olivia Jaramillo talks pop culture, music and society. Tonight: Artist Scott Perry on his latest 100 Days of Pop Culture Icons. Fair maps with the League of Women Voters of Utah and Better Boundaries. Plus, Olivia, Connor and Lara talk free speech online vs IRL.
Redistricting, arts and culture, plant medicine	RadioACTIVE	9/23/25	60 minutes	Roundtable Tuesday 'Elevates' the Conversation. Fair maps, lawmakers and power with Elevate Utah, trying to save Utah with a whiteboard and a dream. Plus, Hoodah Festival; Rooted, Salt Baked City and Canna FanFest; and live, homegrown music from Kate MacLeod.

KRCL Issues and Programs List 3rd Quarter 2025

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
Arts and culture, environment, health and wellness	RadioACTIVE	9/24/25	60 minutes	Wake the Lake with Plan-B's 'Just Add Water' - a World Premiere. From Bomba Marile and SanArte Cultura, the transformative healing space in Puerto Rico, RadioACTIVE talks health and wellness through music and dance. Dr. Eddie Holloway on MAHA, misinformation and what's headed our way for cold and flu season. Plus, Take a Hike with RadioACTIVE's Valene MC and hiking expert Ashley Brown, author of Urban Trails SLC.
Free speech, college campuses, arts and culture	RadioACTIVE	9/25/25	60 minutes	Rising Journalists Celebrate 1A Day. A Voices Amplified Takeover. University of Utah rising journalists bring you the latest from college media as well as student views on issues of the day. Tonight: First Amendment Day. First anniversary of HB261, Utah's DEI ban on college campuses. SLC looks to clamp down on underground clubs, featuring electronic house music, alcohol and unruly guests. Plus, Let Me Explain: Real Housewives of SLC, Season 6.
Arts and culture, agriculture, astronomy	RadioACTIVE	9/26/25	60 minutes	Punk Rock Farmer Kicks off with Music from Montana's Charlie Apple. Then, Aldine's Urban Farm Report with farm-to-table Chef Jean Mendieta of Proyecto Xilonen, Wise Traditions Conference, and Roots Charter High Fall Fest. Plus, SkyWatcher Leo T and The Ogdenite!
Arts and culture, environment, free speech	RadioACTIVE	9/29/25	60 minutes	RadioACTIVE Pop + Dear Everything, a Musical Uprising for the Earth. Playwright V, formerly Eve Ensler, is headed to SLC with her latest work, including a local youth choir backing up the cast. No Kings organizers in Logan and Utah County. Plus, Rico Brand founder Jorge Fiero on the origin of one of his favorite dips -- it's all in the family, of course.
Free speech, civic engagement, plant medicine	RadioACTIVE	9/30/25	60 minutes	Use Your Words. Roundtable Tuesday with Risshan Leak on the different ways to approach change, from in the streets to peaceful dialogue. Find out about the next No Kings National Day of Protest, as well as meet some of the folks behind the new Turn Toward Coalition. Plus, veteran Drew Howells joins Christine Stenquist for more in our Rooted series.