

KRCL is now located at 509 W. 300 N., SLC, on the loading dock at the back of the parking lot (see photos below) just to the east of the brown building at 535 West. Parking is available on a first-come, first-served basis in this parking lot and on the street.

Given train traffic that blocks east-west travel on 300 North, it is best to approach our studios from 600 West via North Temple. FYI, we are "local traffic," so ignore the "road closed" sign at 300 North and 600 West. Proceed east on 300 North from 600 West, almost to the train tracks; then, look to your right (south) for the driveway entrance to our parking lot.
