

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
Music, dance, cross-cultural collaboration, community health workers	RadioACTIVE	4/3/2023	60mins	Sangam, a cross-cultural collaboration about friendship, mutual respect and sustainability through the language of Bharatanatyam. Live flute with Nino Reyes. Meet the DJ, Connor Estes. A training opportunity for Community Health Workers.
Immigrant artists, dance, environment, arts and culture, music	RadioACTIVE	4/4/2023	60mins	New Americans workshops with Craft Lake City, featuring Hanifa Javadi.&nbsp;To See Beyond Time with Ririe-Woodbury Dance Co. Roundtable Tuesday with Rishan Leak talks about environmental issues of the day and arts and culture. Plus, Meet the DJ, Peter Orum.
Women's sports, Black mermaids, literature, Constitution	RadioACTIVE	4/5/23	60mins	The future of Smith's Ballpark may be female. RadioACTIVE explores the possibilities of a women's athletic training center. Plus, NYT best-selling author Tracey Baptiste on why mermaids have always been Black, and a preview of PTC's production of What the Constitution Means to Me.
Homelessness and mental health, religious taboos, AI, sports	RadioACTIVE	4/6/23	60mins	SLCC rising journalists take over RadioACTIVE. Listen as team-lead Anna Gardner talks about street Tai Chi with the founders of Understanding Us. Then, the changing taboos around tattoos in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, ChatGPT in the classroom, #popculture nuggets, and Sports with Sean.
Agriculture, urban farming, environment, alternative building materials, fungi, astronomy, local music	RadioACTIVE	4/7/23	60mins	Punk Rock Farmer Friday, with Aldine, KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer, and Lara. Tune in for more true tales from the aghrihood with Jenkstars and Building Man 2023, Fungal Focus teen mycology club, SkyWatcher Leo T, and fresh, homegrown music from The Medicine Company.
Youth radio, Ramadan, infertility, spring run-off danger	RadioACTIVE	4/10/23	60mins	Beyond the Beat with Loud and Clear Youth Radio. City Cast Salt Lake and Emerald Project with Ramadan 101. Plus, the Utah Infertility Resource Center on the unique struggles infertility can bring. UPDATE: Spring run-off with SL Co. Emergency Management.
environmental law, Earth day, art, music	RadioACTIVE	4/11/23	60mins	HEAL Utah is back to talk about environmental law, Earth Day and its first-ever stand-up comedy night. Salt Lake City Arts Council with an open call for artists. Meet the DJ: Jolene, host of KRCL's Illustrated Blues, Fridays from 3-5AM.
abortion, reproductive rights in Utah, maternal health disparities, music	RadioACTIVE	4/12/23	60mins	Planned Parenthood of Utah's Annabel Sheinberg talks about new leadership and new court action. Dr. Michelle Debbink on maternal health disparities. Meet the DJ: Mike Evans, host of Bluegrass Express and Fret n Fiddle, Sunday afternoons on KRCL.
Great Salt Lake, drought, air quality, settler colonialism, climar crisis, music	RadioACTIVE	4/13/23	60mins	Rising student journalists from SLCC takeover RadioACTIVE. Tune in to hear host McCaulee Blackburn revisit the Great Salt Lake crisis, air quality activism, and settler-colonialism and the climate crisis. Plus, homegrown music from DRAG!
Agriculture, urban farming, radiothon	RadioACTIVE	4/14/23	60mins	Calling all lovers of the aghrihood. RadioACTIVE and the Punk Rock Farmer invite you to kick-off day 1 of Radiothon the way folks who love homegrown food and music know how. From 6-7PM this evening, we'll add a pack of seeds to every donation!
radiothon, trees, environment, Great Salt Lake ecosystem, youth education	RadioACTIVE	4/17/23	60mins	A Radiothon-sized edition of RadioACTIVE with Gifts for Good, featuring Amy May of Tree Utah and Katie Newburn of Friends of Great Salt Lake. Call 801-359-9191 during the show and donate to keep us live and local!
radiothon, poetry, arts	RadioACTIVE	4/18/23	60mins	Roundtable Tuesday's Rishan Leak and Lara Jones spin a playlist to match your Radiothon mood. Plus, poet Ashley Finley!
radiothon, Great Salt Lake, drought, wildlife	RadioACTIVE	4/19/23	60mins	Volunteer Host Nick Burns and Lara Jones spread the good word of Radiothon. Featuring the new GSL Collaborative Water for Wildlife interactive website.
radiothon, journalism, MMIW, animal rights, inclusivity	RadioACTIVE	4/20/23	60mins	Rising journalists of SLCC bring their own spin to Radiothon, including the playlist that's been inspired by the stories they've covered on the show. Plus, student documentaries We Belong and Missing Murdered Unheard, and students lobbying for a law to stop the debarking of dogs.
radiothon, agriculture, urban farming	RadioACTIVE	4/21/23	60mins	A big thank you to all lovers of the aghrihood who made their Radiothon pledges during RadioACTIVE's Punk Rock Farmer Friday!
education, mariachi music, cultural preservation, music in the environment	RadioACTIVE	4/24/23	60mins	The sounds and stories of Esperanza Elementary and Academia Mis Raices, a youth mariachi band. Living Traditions Festival 2023. In a Landscape Concert at Huntsville Monastery.
gender identity, trans rights, anti-trans legislation in Utah, drag	RadioACTIVE	4/25/23	60mins	Loud and Clear Youth Radio Takeover on gender-affirming care and drag performance art.
environment, algal blooms, canyon transportation	RadioACTIVE	4/26/23	60mins	Loud and Clear Youth Radio Takeover on increased algal blooms and the gondola controversy. Loud and Clear is a partnership between KRCL and Spy Hop Productions.
youth journalists, gun violence, alternative spring break	RadioACTIVE	4/27/23	60mins	The final Voices Amplified show of the semester for Salt Lake Community College's rising journalists is here. Listen as each member of the team recaps their favorite moments and stories from this past Spring. Hear students like Teresa Chaikowsky talk about Alternative Spring Break and what that is, or Mavaney Burnham talk about gun violence and the effect it's had on a younger generation. SLCC students with stories to share, pop culture, and more!
agriculture, urban farming, local music, arts	RadioACTIVE	4/28/23	60mins	Punk Rock Farmer Friday, with Aldine, KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer, and Lara. Tune in for more true tales from the aghrihood with Mike Hilbert of Think Little Farm and Solstice Spices' spring planting tips. Plus, fresh and homegrown music from Darling and Debonair and Madelyn Hosch -- both of which are playing this year's SLC Buskerfest and Acoustic Stroll series.
artificial intelligence, queer community, education, MMIW	RadioACTIVE	5/1/23	60mins	Plug into your community with events and the issues they address, including AI International Film Festival, Queer Food FEASTival 2023!, Guadalupe School's Fiesta for the Future, and National Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women + Relatives Awareness Day.
SLC Mayor's race, homelessness, art	RadioACTIVE	5/2/23	60mins	City Cast Salt Lake is back to examine the SLC Mayor's race through the lens of homelessness in the Capital City. Plus, Gabriella Huggins of Art Access on 300 Plates.
Drought, Israel drought solutions, Great Salt Lake Collaborative, social media and first amendment	RadioACTIVE	5/3/23	60mins	Does Israel have the water answers we seek? Fox 13's Ben Winslow on his recent trip to Israel for the Great Salt Lake Collaborative. Plus, local attorneys on Utah's legal showdown with social media companies and a recent Supreme Court ruling that may have a ripple effect in Utah.

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
unions, arts, film, music	RadioACTIVE	5/4/23	60mins	The City Library's workers want to unionize. Craft Lake City meet your maker meets AAPI Month and National Small Business Week. The Prom bows at PTC. And John Doe of X on the lineup he curated for Music May at Salt Lake Film Society.
agriculture, urban farming, community art, astronomy, culture, local music	RadioACTIVE	5/5/23	60mins	Punk Rock Farmer Friday, with Aldine, KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer, and Lara with more true tales from the agrihood. Featuring James Loomis and Giles Larsen of Wasatch Community Gardens and Urban Pepper Project's Shirley Steinmacher. Muralist Chris Peterson and the Utah Wildlife Federation on how you can Celebrate Utah Wildlife. SkyWatcher Leo T. Fresh, homegrown music from My Friend Zero.
Poetry, drought, Glen Canyon, conservation, environment, music	RadioACTIVE	5/8/23	60mins	Utah Poet Rob Carney is back with The Book of Drought. Author Morgan Sjogren with her latest, Path of Light, A Walk Through Colliding Legacies of Glen Canyon. Meet the DJ -- Chovy of Super Sounds.
Women, mother's day, single mother concerns, Utah women, infertility, misogyny	RadioACTIVE	5/9/23	60mins	Celebrating moms with Samira Harnish of Women of the World and Powerful Moms Who Care. Plus, the Utah Women and Leadership Project's latest data on infertility trends, not to mention respect.
Utah Inland Port, environment, air quality, local control, identity and environment	RadioACTIVE	5/10/23	60mins	Utah Inland Port update, both for and against. Between Life and Land: Identity, on display through July 9 at Kimball Art Center. The exhibit features 15 artists examining the role that identity--our values, practices, histories, and fictions--plays in shaping and re-shaping the environments we call home.
Pacific Islander representation in education, small business, local music	RadioACTIVE	5/11/23	60mins	Talanoa Studios takes over RadioACTIVE. Listen as team lead and host Stephanie Mahina talks about the importance of Pacific Islander representation in higher education, small businesses, and homegrown music.
Agriculture, urban farming, conservation, cooperative grocery, astronomy, skylore, cultural stories, local music	RadioACTIVE	5/12/23	60mins	Punk Rock Farmer Friday, with Aldine, KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer, and Lara. Conservation Garden Park and Foodscaping Utah will help us rip our strips and plant something waterwise this summer. Plus, Wasatch Cooperative Market news, Thyme and Place workshops, SkyWatcher Leo T, and homegrown music from bands at this weekend's Kilby Block Party.
local music and buskers, local record cooperative	RadioACTIVE	5/15/23	60mins	Musicians and organizers from May's Acoustic River Strolls this Thursday May 18th and Busker Fest on May 26th and 27th. Also hear about Salt Lake City's first and only record cooperative 3UP Records.
summer camp, music education, Tongan community history	RadioACTIVE	5/16/23	60mins	Welcoming Summer with Summer Camps to keep the kids growing and learning during the break with Rock Camp SLC Shell Yeah + East Hollywood High's Katrina Walker and talking story with Ivoni Nash of the National Tongan Society Utah.
public lands rules, redevelop Smith's Ballpark, pacific island film tour	RadioACTIVE	5/17/23	60mins	Southern Utah Wilderness Alliance on proposed public lands rules and Quiet Title changes. Ballpark Next with Jack Waters. RMCR report on predatory treatment centers in AZ, CO. Plus, Māsima: Pacific Islands Film Tour, curated and presented by Salt Lake Film Society, Pacific Island Knowledge 2 Action Resources (PIK2AR) and Utah Pacific Islands Film Series.
I-15 expansion and community feedback, maker spotlight, living traditions, history of hula	RadioACTIVE	5/18/23	60mins	Community members on the I-15 expansion in SLC. Craft Lake City maker spotlight with American Shaman Artwork. Plus, Talanoa Studios, Kanani Pua Dance and Living Traditions.
Agriculture, urban farming, pollinator program, small ag advocacy, astronomy, skylore from different cultures, local music from living traditions	RadioACTIVE	5/19/23	60mins	Punk Rock Farmer Friday, with Aldine, KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer, and Lara. Tune in for more true tales from the agrihood with Utah Pollinator Habitat Program, Waste Less Solutions, Red Acre Center, SkyWatcher Leo T, and sounds of Living Traditions Festival 2023.
poetry, BIPOC artists, Great Salt Lake, art, youth service	RadioACTIVE	5/22/23	60mins	The poetry of Plumas Colectiva, which will host Baile for the Great Salt Lake this Friday. Plus, a Kealoha residency, and the power of YouthInlc.
SLC Mayor's race, incumbent on I-15 expansion and Ballpark Next; SLCFire seeks new recruits	RadioACTIVE	5/23/23	60mins	I-15 expansion and Ballpark Next with SLC Mayor Erin Mendenhall. Plus, SLC Fire Chief Carl Lieb and FF Bruna Brito on what it takes to join their ranks.
SLC Mayor's race, challenger on I-15 expansion and Ballpark next; art, women's mural	RadioACTIVE	5/24/23	60mins	I-15 expansion and Ballpark Next with SLC mayoral candidate Rocky Anderson. Plus, Rose Park Women's Mural Unveiling with Better Days.
talanoa, mental health, pacific island film fest recap, representation on the Big Screen	RadioACTIVE	5/25/23	60mins	A student-led Talanoa Takeover, talking mental health with community professionals. Plus, a Masima wrap-up and covering Pasifika representation on the Big Screen.
Memorial Day, cemetery etiquette, summer guide, music summit, music	RadioACTIVE	5/26/23	60mins	An irregular RadioACTIVE, featuring Memorial Day events, SLC Cemetery Sexton Keith Van Otten, City Weekly Summer Guides, Park City Song Summit, and Meet the DJ with Courtney Blair. The Punk Rock Farmer will return next week!
Utah Asian community and history; Japanese-American Alice Kasai, regional writers, water	RadioACTIVE	5/29/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE gets a preview of the 46th annual Utah Asian Festival, the longest-running continuous event of its kind this side of the Mississippi. Better Days on Alice Kasai, an advocate for Japanese-Americans' rights and for international peace. Plus, Rocky Mountain Community Radio Regional Roundup on writers of the region, and podcast The Thirst Gap.
Pride month, anti-lgbtq laws, drag, BYU and lgbtq activism history, local makers, youth environmental activists on climate change	RadioACTIVE	5/30/23	60mins	Pride 2023 with Utah Pride Center's Jonathan Foulk and Ted Nicholls, aka SLC Showgirl Gia Bianca Stephens. SL Mag's Christie Porter on LGBTQ+ activism at BYU. Meet Your Craft Lake City Maker. Sierra Club and UYES on recent wins for clean energy and climate in Utah schools.

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
cold case homicides in lgbtq community, public art, snowpack and spring runoff, service, diplomacy and international relations at grassroots level	RadioACTive	5/31/23	60mins	Eric Peterson of The Utah Investigative Journalism Project on his research into a series of cold case homicides in the late-70s. A call for public art ideas in the Fairpark neighborhood. Water World with KRCL's Jordy Clayton. A change at Utah Council for Citizen Diplomacy. First Lady Abby Cox's call to Show Up for Summer Service.
Talanoa, gender and sexuality resources, local music	RadioACTive	6/1/23	60mins	Another Talanoa Takeover, featuring Leka Heimuli and Charlie Erickson of SLCC's Gender and Sexuality Student Resource Center. Fresh, homegrown music from Abigail and Langiola's Son.
Agriculture, urban farming, farmers market, astronomy and culture, local music	RadioACTive	6/2/23	60mins	True tales from the agrihood with KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer, featuring a preview of the Downtown SLC Farmers Market at Pioneer Park -- opening day is tomorrow! International Market and Film Night at Fair Park. Skywatcher Leo T, and fresh and homegrown music from Hear Utah Music, farmer Tyler Montague, and a live performance by Katie Van Sleen.
women's athletics, local sports and cancer research, mental health and craft fair	RadioACTive	6/5/23	60mins	RadioACTive explores the momentum for a women's sports hub with She Plays Here and League One Volleyball, which earlier today announced SLC as the home of its fourth pro team. Plus, Huntsman Sportsfest and Sunset City's annual Mental Health Craft Fair.
film, black representation in film, black access to outdoor recreation, local film community, boycott BDS, local anti-boycott legislation, meet your maker, arts	RadioACTive	6/6/23	60mins	Building community through film with Black Bold and Brilliant's annual Wild and Scenic Film Festival, the 10th anniversary of Davey Fest, and Boycott at SLFS. Plus, Meet Your Maker with Craft Lake City.
Ute tribe storytelling camp for youth, Ute tribe education, local politics, gravel pit in Parley's	RadioACTive	6/7/23	60mins	Ute Storytelling Camp. Cloee Hackford of the Ute Indian Tribe Education Department. Tribune columnist Robert Gehrke on why he believes Utah's congressmen think your vote is meaningless. And Save Parley's on the latest twist in Parley's Canyon.
shorebirds, environment, gun violence prevention, mountain towns loved to death	RadioACTive	6/8/23	60mins	National Audubon Society and Sageland Collaborative on the return of a statewide shorebirds survey after a 30-year hiatus. Plus, Guns to Gardens with the Gun Violence Prevention Center of Utah. RMCR Regional Roundup on how Moab and other Rocky Mountain towns are being loved to death.
Agriculture, urban farming, PRIME Act, local ag nonprofits, astronomy and cultural stories of constellations, local music and service	RadioACTive	6/9/23	60mins	True tales from the agrihood with KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer, featuring Red Acre Center and The Green Urban Lunch Box. Plus, Skywatcher Leo T, and fresh and homegrown music from the folks putting on the Heart and Soul Music Stroll.
Black community building and fellowship, DEI via sports at UoU; Great Salt Lake, art and activism	RadioACTive	6/12/23	60mins	Community building with Black Cultural Center - University of Utah and Our Sundays. Plus, embodying Great Salt Lake with with poets, artists and activists.
Black stories in film, Juneteenth history and activities in community, meet your maker and art, animal conservation	RadioACTive	6/13/23	60mins	Black Bold and Brilliant previews Utah Film Center's FREE 2023 Summer Outdoor Film Series. Robert Burch of Sema Hadithi African American Heritage and Culture Foundation on Juneteenth in our community. Plus, Meet Your Maker with Craft Lake City and NHMU's new special exhibition, Wild World: Stories of Conservation and Hope.
YWCA, racial justice challenge, Bloomsday and literature	RadioACTive	6/14/23	60mins	YWCA's 21-Day Racial Justice Challenge with Public Policy Director Gabe Archuleta. From the KRCL Vault, Bloomsday revisited with former KRCL Volunteer DJ Carlie Jimenez. Listen as we share audio circa 1980.
Talanoa, mental health in pacifica community, Tongan diaspora, Utah Red Cross in Guam	RadioACTive	6/15/23	60mins	Another Talanoa Takeover, featuring Fisi Moleni, sharing about Pacifica mental health and Anitelu Mahina, a Tongan diaspora story. Then a check-in with Heidi Ruster, Red Cross of Utah, deployed to Guam for Typhoon Mawar relief operation.
Agriculture, urban farming, farmers market, flower hub, local music, astronomy and cultural stories	RadioACTive	6/16/23	60mins	True tales from the agrihood with KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer. What's Fresh at the Farmers Market. Urban Farm Report with Bloomed Life, which is starting a flower hub. Plus, fresh and homegrown music from Daytime Lover.
Juneteenth, NAACP, Black community building and fellowship; Juneteenth history and local activities	RadioACTive	6/19/23	60mins	A Juneteenth edition of RadioACTive, with Betty Sawyer and Jeanetta Williams of the NAACP. Plus, we revisit our conversations with the Black Cultural Center and Our Sundays SLC, as well as Robert Burch of Sema Hadithi.
Labor history and unions; meet your maker and local art, DEI in art, art criticism, climate disaster literature	RadioACTive	6/20/23	60mins	Sean Claffey, director of the award-winning documentary AMERICONNED. Plus, Meet Your Maker Spotlight with Craft Lake City's Belynda Winger and @bonytongueart's Tiffany Whitby, and Granary Arts' debut of Critical Ground series.
Psychedelics, presidential politics, Meet the DJ	RadioACTive	6/21/23	60mins	Revival 2023: Kintsugi, the Summer Solstice Celebration. Plus, Sophia McClennen, author of the new book, Trump Was a Joke, How Satire Made Sense of a President Who Didn't.
SCOTUS, water, Indigenous rights, Pasifika, music	RadioACTive	6/22/23	60mins	Journalist Alastair Lee Bitsoi on today's SCOTUS ruling in Arizona v. Navajo Nation. Plus, Talanoa Studios' Stephanie Mahina talks about making music with Langiola's Son, who shares his latest single before it drops tomorrow.&nbsp;
Agriculture, urban farming, astronomy, local music	RadioACTive	6/23/23	60mins	True tales from the agrihood with KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer. What's Fresh at Wheeler's Farmers Market and tips and tricks from Katie Wagner of USU Extension. KRCL History Project. Skywatcher Leo T. Plus, homegrown music from H.U.M., the Hear Utah Music Collection at The City Library.&nbsp;
Youth media, food insecurity, community resources, neighborhood safety	RadioACTive	6/26/23	60mins	True tales from the agrihood with KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer. What's Fresh at the Farmers Market. Urban Farm Report with Bloomed Life, which is starting a flower hub. Plus, fresh and homegrown music from Daytime Lover.

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
Tiny homes, disability oversight in UT, UT makers, film	RadioACTive	6/27/23	60mins	Preston Cochrane, recently named CEO of The Other Side Village, discussing its expansion and opening of a donut shop. Plus, Disability Law Center's Nate Crippes new report, License to Mismanage: Investigating Utah's Troubled Long Term Care System. Plus, Meet Your Maker Spotlight from CLC's DIY Fest.
Abortion, reproductive rights in UT, SCOTUS, music and culture	RadioACTive	6/28/23	60mins	Kathryn Boyd, CEO of Planned Parenthood of Utah, shares her thoughts and goals for Utah and women's health care, one year after SCOTUS Dobbs v. Jackson. Checking in with a LIVE, "Meet the DJ" segment with Dave John of KRCL's Indigenous program, Living the Circle of Life.
Talanoa, Pasifika culture in film and music	RadioACTive	6/29/23	60mins	Another Talanoa Takeover, featuring Charlie Prescott of Utah Pacific Island Film series, and the Pasifika music collective, Moon Gang.
Agriculture, urban farming, slow flowers, astronomy, local music	RadioACTive	6/30/23	60mins	REBROADCAST: True tales from the agrihood with KRCL's Punk Rock Farmer. What's Fresh at the Farmers Market. Urban Farm Report with Bloomed Life, which is starting a flower hub. Plus, fresh and homegrown music from Daytime Lover.